

What does Chareé White like the most about her life in country music, 'Being on the stage, performing and hanging with the fans'. This singer/songwriter/Nashville Recording Artist has had a love for country music starting at the age of 8 years old, singing and playing guitar to her mother's favorite country records. She was born and raised in the small town of Worthington, Pennsylvania. Some of her musical influences include Carrie Underwood, Miranda Lambert, Garth Brooks, Steven Tyler, and Bryan Adams just to name a few. This is where she throughout the years has established the energy and rock in her vocal style, which has now become her signature. At the age of eighteen she showed that, as she was honored with the 2013 New Artist of the Year at the Inspirational Country Music Awards in Nashville .

With hundreds of live shows under her belt this 22 year old rising female country star has appeared at some of the best festivals and venues in the U.S. including Country USA, KYTN Country Fest, Food City Race Night, Port Canaveral Seafood Festival, Country Fest, Big Butler Fair, the Wildhorse Saloon in Nashville, Moondance Country Music Fest, Carnival Dream Cruise Ship, Honkytonkin' Opry in Florida, and many NASCAR tracks up and down the east coast. She has shared the stage with some of today's biggest stars Miranda Lambert, Kellie Pickler, Clint Black, Dustin Lynch, James Otto, Joe Diffie, Frankie Ballard, Jake Owen, Travis Tritt, Neal McCoy, Kenny Chesney, Maddie and Tae, Old Dominion, Darius Rucker, Brett Eldredge and Casey James, and with classic legendary artists including Leona Williams, Chubby Checker, Stella Parton, Joanne Cash and many others.

At the age of 17, Chareé started writing and recording in Nashville. She then released her debut album, "Stronger," at the age of 18 with the first single charting at #17 and her second single going all the way to #1 on the Inspirational Country Music charts followed by a US Tour. Her second album "Keepin It Country " crossed into the country mainstream charts. The radio single "Keepin It Country" climbed all the way into the Top 40 on the Music Row Country Breakout Chart, along with her second single "Alive" charting in the Top 60. Chareé is back on the road again in 2017 in support of her newest album titled "I Like it Loud."

Her dream is to change the world one song at a time.
